3. The methods used to determine which and how much students receive Emergency Financial Aid Grants are as follows –

These one-time grant funds that do not need to be paid back can be used to help cover any direct educational expenses, such as books or computers, or other related costs, including housing, health care, food, or child care expenses during this pandemic. The following criteria needs to be in place for students to receive this grant so long as the limited funds continue to be available:

- Student was enrolled and/or in attendance on March 13, 2020 and after;
- Student has attended beyond the cancellation period

Students who were or are enrolled during the COVID-19 national emergency are eligible for emergency financial aid grants from the HEERF, regardless of whether they completed a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or are eligible for Title IV. CET has been directed to prioritize students with exceptional need, such as students who received Pell grant or with extraordinary financial circumstances.

✚ Students with exceptional need will receive a one-time grant for $1,675.

✚ All other students will receive a one-time grant for $1,275.

Students do not have to take any action. Grant checks will be mailed to their address on record.

Students who received emergency funds for $800 or $400 in 2020 and first part of 2021, will receive a second check for $875. Students do not need to take any action. The grant check will be mailed to their address on record.

Funds will be disbursed in the form of grant checks until all funds are depleted.

The instructions, directions, or guidance provided by CET to all eligible students concerning the Emergency Financial Aid Grants were sent via email and published on the CARES-HEERF Reports - Center for Employment Training \(cetweb.edu\)
